To Whom It May Concern,

Pohene Chowdhury has completed an internship as a Tutor at our organization. She was associated with Responsible Charity from August 2021 to March 2022.

Her assistance and input in our programs have been very useful, and have added substantial value to our organization. She was not only involved with simply teaching her students but also in the other programs the organization conducted.

Her compassion and ethics are not only admirable but also commendable as they speak volumes of her character. Pohene's ability to interact with people of all social classes was evident during the monthly community visits where she would interact with the parents of the students with empathy and offer solutions to the issues reported.

It was a pleasure to have Pohene affiliated with us!

If you have any further questions, do not hesitate to contact us.
