VENUE - Shri Shikshayatan College

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS-

- Students of B. Ed Department, Semester 4, Shri Shikshayatan College
- 6 Students of B. Ed Department, Semester 4, Loreto College

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT-

Like every year, this year too, a collaborative academic linkage programme was organized between the B.E.d. Departments of Shri Shikshayatan College and Loreto College, Kolkata. Six students from Loreto College came to Shri Shikshayatan College, while six students from Shri Shikshayatan College also visited Loreto College as a part of this Academic Linkage which gave students of both colleges exposure to the academic environment, teaching methodologies, and institutional practices. In both colleges a defined portion of the B.Ed syllabus prescribed by The University of Calcutta, was covered.

In Shri Shikshayatan College, several hands-on activities were conducted by the B.Ed. Department which included a quiz on “NCFTE 2009, Children's Literature and Principles of Time Table Construction. (1.4.8-B)”, “An Interactive Session on Preparing and Critiquing a Timetable Session for The Secondary School (COURSE 1.4.8-B)”, A Panel discussion on Teachers as agents of Change(Course-1.4.6). These activities helped students of both colleges work together, think creatively and critically.

OUTCOME - Students from both colleges worked cooperatively and got the chance to learn beyond their own classrooms. The linkage program also helped both colleges build a closer academic and professional relationship. Overall, the program was conducted successfully.
