Brief Description of the Event: Dr. Raychadhury delivered the Special Lecture on “Exploring Women’s Participation and Representation in Indian Politics”, addressing the students of the department from semesters II, III and VI. The presentation outlined the dynamics of gender, political parties as institutions and women’s representation in politics, stressing fundamental concepts and practical experiences. This was followed by an interactive session, where the speaker constructively addressed the questions and comments from the students and faculty.

Outcome: The Lecture complemented and supplemented the concepts in the syllabi with real-life research and practical experience of the Speaker. The lecture was beneficial to the senior students in terms of teaching them the basics of doing research and fieldwork in this discipline.
