BRIEF DESCRIPTION: The B.A. and B.Sc. Students' Council of Shri Shikshayatan College organized a heartfelt farewell ceremony for the Semester 6 graduating batch of 2025. The event commenced with an inspiring inaugural speech by the Principal, highlighting the achievements and journey of the outgoing students. This was followed by a vibrant cultural programme, thoughtfully curated and performed by the students. A special segment of the event featured the distribution of farewell gifts to the graduating students by their juniors, symbolizing appreciation, and good wishes.

OUTCOME: The event was a perfect blend of emotion, gratitude, and celebration, creating lasting memories for both students and teachers alike. It strengthened the bond between juniors and seniors, encouraging a spirit of continuity and mutual respect. The event also provided a platform for student leadership and creativity through the successful organization of the cultural programme. Faculty-student relationships were further enriched through shared celebration and acknowledgment. Overall, the ceremony reinforced college values, built community spirit, and left the graduating batch with a lasting emotional connection to their alma mater.
