Collaborator (if any): Pratibandhi Kalyan Kendra

Name of speakers: Shri Subrata Banerjee, Founder, Director and General Secretary of PKK and Smt. Nandini Sen, Assistant Director, PKK.

Title of lecture: Students as Partners

Number of participants (Students):183

Number of participants (Teachers):17

Outcome: Students of both, Semester-II (2021-2023) and Semester-IV (2020-2022) were made conscious about societal misconceptions and apathy towards differently abled children and how PKK reaches out to them with aids, therapy, counseling, education and parental guidance in order to discover their special potential and help them to be included in the mainstream of life from Shri Subrata Banerjee, Founder, Director and General Secretary of PKK and Smt. Nandini Sen, Assistant Director, PKK on 26.03.22. The mesmerizing performance of some of the children of the organization showcased the difference PKK has made in many lives and as individual what our students can achieve with empathy and determination.

Our students were oriented about their work as partners in the organisation's efforts. They worked on a door-to-door awareness campaign for the organisation to help the society at large and to understand the true meaning and importance of inclusive education. Students of both semesters handed over a bank draft of Rs.171000/- to Sri Subhadip Bose, Resource person, PKK on 13.05.2022.
