

NSS SPECIAL CAMP REPORT-2025-2026

Name of the Event: Inauguration and Orientation of New Volunteers

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS), University of Calcutta.

Date: 9th December, 2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Participants: 45

Teachers: 15

Brief description:

The NSS Special camp for the academic year 2025-26 started on the 9th December, 2025 under the able leadership of our NSS program officer, Dr. Barnali Laha. The program started with an enthusiastic dance performance by NSS students. It was followed by an informative PPT presentation that consisted of all the activities done by the NSS unit of our college throughout the year. Thereafter, 53 girls registered with My Bharat portal. They were also registered with University of Calcutta and were added to the NSS official WhatsApp group to keep them informed of all the upcoming events and activities. The program for the day ended with a hearty vote of thanks to all the members present.

Outcome:

The inaugural session successfully inducted new female volunteers into the National Service Scheme (NSS) framework for the 2025-26 academic year. A total of 53 girls were formally registered across three essential platforms: the My Bharat portal, the University of Calcutta's official records, and the NSS WhatsApp communication group. This comprehensive registration process effectively integrated the new volunteers, ensuring they are officially recognized and fully informed about all future NSS events and activities. Consequently, the day established a strong, organized foundation for the unit's work, enabling the college's NSS program to execute its planned activities with a full and well-connected team.

Blood Donation Camp Report

Name of the Event: Blood Donation Camp

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS), University of Calcutta; COSU; SWC and LTS units of Shri Shikshayatan College

Date: 10th December, 2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Participants: 116

Teachers: 15

Student Volunteers: 25

Brief Description- The NSS Unit of University of Calcutta, COSU, SWC and LTS units of our college organized a Blood Donation Camp at the college campus to educate students about the importance, safety, and impact of blood donation. The external partners of the blood donation camp were the Lions Club and Blood Connect. The camp drew enthusiasm among students and teachers alike. The Lions Club sent an able team of doctors, nurses and para-medicals to carry out the session. 116 students from various streams had registered for the event. Each donor was subjected to a thorough medical check-up and was permitted to donate blood only if considered fit. 80 units of blood were collected. The donors were provided with some rest and refreshments. Certificates were also given to each donor.

Outcome: The program invoked a positive spirit among students urging them to understand the significance of donating blood for saving millions of lives suffering from chronic and terminal diseases. The program was successful in pooling 80 units of blood to help the people in need. The program further strengthened the NSS volunteers' sense of social responsibility and promoted the spirit of cooperation through community engagement. It paved the way for organizing future voluntary blood donation drives at the college.

Visit to Little Sisters of the Poor

Name of the Event: Visit to Little Sisters of the Poor

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS), Shri Shikshayatan College

Date: 11th December, 2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Elgin, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Student Participants: 25

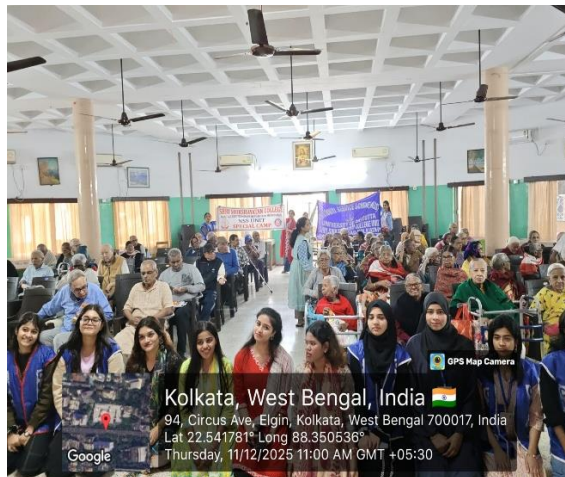

Teachers: 4

Brief Description:

On the third day of the camp, our team of volunteers along with a few teachers visited the renowned old age home, Little Sisters of the Poor. Our students regularly visit this home and spend time with the inmates. On this day 25 volunteers met the inmates. Together they cut a cake and put up a beautifully conducted song and dance program of 105 aged inmates of the home. The place was lit up with smile and happiness. The program was loved by all inmates. Our team also met with the nuns of the home and other officials present there. We also gifted some materials of basic importance and few refreshments for the home. The inmates were very happy and desired more such meetings.

Outcome:

The program emphasized the role of youth in supporting the frail, aged and the abandoned. The program infused a sense of compassion among the students to help the vulnerable section of the society.

NSS SPECIAL CAMP REPORT-2025-2026

Name of the Event: Poster making

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS), Shri Shikshayatan College

Date: 12th December, 2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Participants: 25

Brief Description:

The students enthusiastically engaged in making posters on relevant social topics that included road safety, anti-smoking drive, wild-life awareness etc. The enthusiastic participation of the students transformed the poster-making session into a vibrant platform for social advocacy and awareness. They demonstrated creativity and thoughtfulness in visually communicating crucial messages on all the above topics.

Outcome: The project allowed them to research, synthesize, and present complex social issues in an accessible and memorable format. Furthermore, by choosing such relevant subjects, the students not only enhanced their artistic skills but also fostered a stronger sense of social responsibility within themselves and the school community. Ultimately, the posters served as powerful, self-made educational tools designed to encourage positive behavioural changes among their peers.

Kolkata, West Bengal, India
11, Lord Sinha Road, Elgin, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071, India
Lat 22.543027° Long 88.348946°
Friday, 12/12/2025 01:00 PM GMT +05:30

Kolkata, West Bengal, India
11, Lord Sinha Road, Elgin, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071, India
Lat 22.543024° Long 88.348976°
Friday, 12/12/2025 01:00 PM GMT +05:30

Kolkata, West Bengal, India
11, Lord Sinha Road, Elgin, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071, India
Lat 22.542911° Long 88.348871°
Friday, 12/12/2025 12:53 PM GMT +05:30

Social Awareness Rally

Name of the Event: Social Awareness Rally on anti-smoking and road safety

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS), Shri Shikshayatan College

Date: 13th December, 2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Participants: 30

Teachers: 15

Brief Description:

The NSS Unit of the college successfully executed a high-impact Social Awareness Rally to champion crucial community concerns, including Road Safety, the Anti-Smoking Drive, and Wildlife Awareness. The students, having channelled their enthusiasm into creating compelling, informative posters during the preparatory phase, took to the streets covering Lord Sinha Road, Shakespeare Sarani, Pretoria Street, AJC Bose Road and returning to the college campus at Lord Sinha Road, to advocate for change. The rally was characterized by the students' vibrant and thoughtful presentation of these posters, effectively turning the march into a dynamic platform for social advocacy. Their collective effort ensured that complex social issues were presented in an accessible, memorable, and highly public manner.

Outcome: The rally served as a powerful culmination of the students' efforts, significantly raising public awareness of the chosen social topics. The project's structure allowed participants to effectively utilize their research and synthesis skills to present crucial information, making the rally far more than a simple march. By actively championing relevant subjects in the public sphere, the students not only amplified the messages of safety, health, and conservation but also visibly demonstrated and fostered a strong sense of social responsibility within themselves and the wider community. Ultimately, the rally successfully utilized the posters as highly effective, self-made educational tools designed to encourage positive behavioral changes and civic engagement among peers and the public.

Participation in Wildlife Awareness Rally (WAR25; Series 8)

Name of the Event: Wildlife Awareness Rally

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit; Student s' Council, ComEns, LTS, Shri Shikshayatan College

Date: 14th December,2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Participants: 31

Teachers: 6

Brief Description:

College students demonstrated powerful commitment by participating enthusiastically in the Wildlife Awareness Rally (WAR25). This rally served as the dynamic culmination of their prior creative efforts, which included making posters on diverse social topics, prominently featuring wild-life awareness. The students carried their posters along the rally route from Asutosh College to Jai Hind Banquet on Ashtuosh Mukherjee Road. The rally began at 11:30 a.m. and concluded at 1:30 p.m. Following the rally, our volunteers participated in both an essay competition and a poster-making competition. The students transformed the march into a vibrant platform for social advocacy. Their creativity and thoughtfulness were on full display as they visually communicated crucial conservation messages, capturing the attention of the public and enhancing the rally's overall impact.

Outcome:

The students' involvement in WAR25 allowed them to directly translate their academic effort into tangible community action. The project required them to research, synthesize, and present complex wildlife issues in an accessible and memorable format, preparing them for the public stage of the rally. Furthermore, by participating in WAR25, the students not only showcased their artistic and communicative skills but, more significantly, fostered a stronger sense of social responsibility. Ultimately, their presence and their posters served as powerful, self-made educational tools, directly encouraging positive behavioural changes among their peers and the wider community towards environmental stewardship and wildlife preservation.

CLOSING CEREMONY

Name of the Event: Closing ceremony

Organized by: National Service Scheme (NSS), Shri Shikshayatan College

Date: 15th December, 2025

Venue: 11, Lord Sinha Road, Elgin, Kolkata, West Bengal 700071

Number of Student Participants: 35

Teachers: 15

Brief Description:

The final day, Day 7, marked the symbolic and emotional close of the week-long NSS camp. This day was purposefully set aside from direct community service to facilitate a powerful, collective reflection on the preceding week. The core event was a meaningful song and dance program, meticulously prepared and performed by the students themselves, which served as a creative and expressive summary of the entire experience. Through various artistic forms, the students narrated the journey of the camp, highlighting everything from the initial community service activities and the challenges faced, to the educational sessions and the strong sense of camaraderie that had blossomed. The program concluded with an inspiring note by our NSS program officer, Dr. Barnali Laha

Outcome:

Crucially, the outcome of the camp was measured by the lasting commitment it fostered in the participants. The students collectively made a profound vow to participate in more such programs of social importance in the future, indicating that the camp had successfully instilled a passion for community service in them.

