BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT:

The department of Political Science of Shri Shikshayatan College organised the Harmony Meet. It is celebrated every year by our Department to provide a platform for students to showcase their diverse talents, build confidence by performing in front of an audience, encourage creativity, foster a sense of community and potentially discover hidden abilities amongst the student body. The programme had 5 segments including music, dance, self-composed poems, painting and photography by the students.

OUTCOME

This Harmony Meet was a resounding success. It collectively showcased talent and fostered engagement, promoted creativity and innovation. Moreover, it helped in the development of soft skills, encourages teamwork, communication, and leadership, augmented confidence as it prepared the students for public speaking and presentations. Vibrant energy and diversity of artistic expression made this event a memorable celebration of students' creativity. As the event ended, it was evident that the spirit of creativity and passion for the arts thrives within the department, promising more memorable events in the future.
