

NAME OF THE EVENT : INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY

DATE: 27TH September, 2024

TIME : 12 – 3 PM

VENUE : ROOM 303

ORGANISED BY : Department Of Education

GUEST SPEAKER : Dr. Debasri Banerjee, Professor, Dept. Of Education, University Of Calcutta

THEME : INCLUSIVITY IN EDUCATION

PARTICIPANTS : 9 Faculty And 68 Students

DESCRIPTION : The event was an intra-college one. The programme started with an inaugural song followed by the release of the Departmental journal 'Expressions'. NSS student members gave a presentation on - 'In a Slum of Kolkata: Journey towards Literacy with NSS'. Students of the Department of Education presented a paper on – 'Role of Mass Media in Spreading Awareness of Inclusion in Society and Education', and a report on – Summer Internship Programme, Semester 2, 2024 at Monochetna. The Guest Speaker Dr. Debasri Banerjee gave a talk on the theme of the programme – Inclusive Education.

OUTCOME : The students were given an orientation towards the importance and concept of Inclusive Education. They learnt about the role that the mass media plays in creating awareness about inclusivity in society as well as education, the contribution of the NSS Unit of the college in bringing about literacy in the slums of Kolkata. Also, about the positive and meaningful experiences of the students who had undertaken a summer internship at the Centre for Teaching and Training, Manochetna, Manovikas Kendra in which they had a hands on experience on identification and education of children with Specific Learning Difficulty.

