

LIBRARY DAY 2023

On 10th May 2023, the Cultural Committee of Shri Shikshayatan College celebrated the Library Day, commemorating the 162nd birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore. The inaugural ceremony began with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by our Principal, Dr Aditi Dey along with other members of the Cultural Committee. The opening song was presented by the student members of Chorchha, the Bengali Creative Society of the College. The relevance of the day was delivered by Muskan Singh, student of the Department of Political Science, .

The day was also marked by the release of the departmental journal: Vasudha (Department of Geography), and the conference proceedings of the state-level Urdu seminar on 'Kishan Chandra ki Adbi Khidmaat.' The Cultural Committee gifted several books to the College General Library.

Chorchha, the Bengali Creative Society paid tribute to Rabindranath Tagore through a music and dance recital. Imprint, the English Literary Society also extended the tribute by putting together a poetry reading of selected poems of Tagore. QuiDra, the Quiz and Drama Society performed a snippet from Tagore's Sukkeho Bichar. The day came to a conclusion with a Vote of Thanks, delivered by Srishti Ganguly.
