Brief Description of the Event: The NSS unit of Shri Shikshayatan College, Kolkata, joyfully commemorated the 79th Independence Day of India with vibrant festivities. The programme commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony, followed by an inspiring address delivered by the Chief Guest. A series of cultural activities were presented by the students, including patriotic dances, songs, recitations, skating performance, and a drama on freedom fighters, which beautifully showcased their talents. The event also featured a parade that added to the patriotic spirit of the occasion. The cultural programme concluded with the National Anthem. As part of the HAR GHAR TIRANGA campaign, the NSS volunteers distributed around 50 national flags along Lord Sinha Road to spread the spirit of patriotism among the community.

• Outcome: The programme successfully fostered a spirit of national pride and collective responsibility among the participants and people on lord Sinha road. It also served as an effective medium for promoting the objectives of the HAR GHAR TIRANGA campaign while encouraging students to actively engage in cultural and community-oriented activities.
