NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS: 25 students of Semester 1 Major

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT:

The Library is the cornerstone of the academic life of the Institution. It provides essential resources to support the intellectual growth of the students. The Library Orientation was organized for the students of Semester 1 Major so as to formally introduce them to the functioning of the Library.

OUTCOME

The students were deeply engaged in the orientation lecture delivered by Swati Bhattacharya. They came to know of the wide range of physical and digital resources available in the library. The internet facility available in the library is beneficial for the students for accessing online databases and engage in digital learning. The booking of slots are also available in the library so as to ensure equitable access. The students thoroughly enjoyed this orientation. By making use of the various services offered, they can maximise their academic potential and ensure growth.
