The insights of the visit were chronologically displayed through a presentation. The presentation was followed by video showcasing the entire journey from College to Shuktara.

OUTCOME

The presentation captivated the audience. The heartfelt journey of specially disabled members as bakers was explained with visuals, along with the struggle of specially abled girls in their daily chores. The students realized how fortunate they are to have a stable and loving upbringing. The visuals of those children also made the student reflect on the importance of social responsibility and the impact that small acts of kindness can have on the lives of others.

Here we made pen stands for the girls with help of cardboards and glue gun, the girls were amazed by the working of hot glue gun and were happy to choose the colour of the pen stand .
