Dr. Hitendra Patel

Head, Department of Environmental Studies

Rabindra Bharti University

Brief description of the event: The lecture series was dedicated to the memories of the college's founder, late Sitaram Seksaria Ji

The event began with a lamp-lighting ceremony and a Ganesh Vandana performed by the students. Dr. Tania Chakraborty (Principal) spoke about Seksaria ji's contributions and the relevance of the memorial lecture. The presence of the college secretary, Mr. Pradeep Sharma, added to the prestige of the event.

Dr. Rachna Pandey shed light on Sitaram Ji's life values and ideologies. Smt. Alpana Nayak, Head of the Hindi Department, introduced the guest speaker. The keynote lecture was delivered by Prof. Hitendra Patel, Head of the Department of Environmental Studies at Rabindra Bharati University. Prof. Patel spoke on "Indian Knowledge Tradition." He highlighted the importance of knowledge in ancient Indian culture, referring to works by Prof. Kapil Kapoor and Rajiv Malhotra to link these traditions to modern contexts. Prof. Patel concluded that the ability to both agree and disagree is essential for healthy intellectual discourse and a thriving society.

The program was conducted by college students Jyosmita Chakraborty and Mansi Chhetri.

Smt. Sindhu Mehta Concluded the event with a vote of thanks.

Outcome: The outcome of the seminar focused on bridging ancient wisdom with modern applications. It aimed to show that these traditions are not just historical artifacts but living frameworks for sustainable development. It focused on character building, empathy, and social responsibility within the educational framework, moving beyond just "job-readiness."
