Date: 24th November, 2025

Time: 11:00 AM

Participants: 1st Semester Students of B.Ed Department (85 Students + 14 Teachers + Principal)

Venue: Room 112

Brief Description of the Event: The B.Ed. Department of Shri Shikshayatan College organized a Workshop on Professional Ethics and Values for Semester I students. The session was conducted by Dr. Kaushik Ghosh, a distinguished Architect, Urban Designer, and Urban Planner with extensive national and international experience in capacity building and sustainable development.

Dr. Ghosh introduced students to key ethical dilemmas such as truth versus loyalty, individual versus community, and short-term versus long-term decisions. He explained the meaning and types of values, highlighted essential professional values like integrity, honesty, fairness, empathy, and responsibility, and emphasized the importance of ethical consistency in decision-making.

The session also covered micro-skills including active listening, cultural sensitivity, constructive feedback, and value-based leadership. Students actively participated and reflected on the role of values in becoming responsible and effective future educators.

Outcome: Students gained a clear understanding of ethical behaviour, value-based decision making, and the importance of professional values in the teaching profession.
